June, 2016

Dear Special Friends,

Hello this evening from Texas, while I'm ministering in the U.S. for several weeks, and traveling to a lot of different places. Please be praying for me, driving to each one. I arrived here a few weeks ago, and I'll be around several more weeks.

One of the places where I'll minister is in Miami, at Life Christian University. The teachers and students are helping me build Church No. 60 in Nasia, northern Ghana. The people there are busy right now, plastering the walls inside and outside the church. They'll be casting the cement floor, also putting in doors and windows soon.

We're also helping to finish two other churches, getting ready for dedication services in August, and helping get the wiring and electrical work done, also putting ceiling fans in another one. We're praying about two more churches to begin to help build, too.

Thanks so much for your prayers, and your support of the ministry. It was fifty years ago this month, when we resigned from the church where we were pastors in Texas, and started preparing to go to Africa as missionaries. I'm still there!

God is doing miracles, and people are giving testimonies in the churches here. A lady's hand was healed in one place a few days ago. She had been having lots of pain, and suffered from arthritis for quite a long time. Jesus touched her when I prayed, and all the pain was gone. Her fingers were normal again, praise God!

In another church, a lady's arm and shoulder got healed, so she showed everybody how she could lift her arm up high, after being unable to do that for a whole year! Jesus heals today!

My 15th book is finished, and they've sent copies to me from Nigeria. It's "Stories He Loved to Tell, Volume Two," filled with more of the great stories my husband used to tell. Send an E-mail to me, for information about how you can get a copy.

The ministry website on the Internet has been down for several months, but we've been able to get it up again now. We're still working on it, but please try to check it at www.hokett.org.

My latest printed newsletter, which some of you haven't been receiving, is there, full of pictures and news of the ministry. There's also a lot of pictures and information about the ministry, too.

The 2016 “Thought for the Day” full color calendar is there, and you can try to download the beautiful pictures, also the calendar pages with the inspiring “Thought for the Day” for the whole year.

You can also tap on “Video,” on the website, and watch both my beloved husband and me, preaching in Nigeria, too. We’re also making it possible to hear audio messages, order copies of my books, CD’s, etc., too. I hope to hear from you, to know you’ve seen the website.

Next week, on Monday, June 13, I’ll be ministering on an Internet Radio program, if you’d like to listen. It will be from 10:00 to 11:00 A.M., Central Daylight Time (3:00 to 4:00 P.M. in Ghana, 4:00 to 5:00 P.M. in Nigeria, and 6:00 to 7:00 P.M. in Kenya, etc.

You can find the station at www.fyiministry.com. The website will show their program schedule for Mondays, and you can tap 8:00 to 9:00 A.M. (California time), to hear “Lemonade Live!!” You’ll see “Currently playing on FYI, “ and just tap the pointer underneath, to listen. You may want to download the free app “TuneinRadio” to listen to this and other Internet Radio Stations later.

Remember, “J” is for June, but “J” is also for Joy! I’m praying for you, that you’ll experience a lot of JOY in this month of June! The joy of the Lord is your strength” (Nehemiah 8:10).

Love, Doris Hokett
